Why Join AIMPAC?

Message from the AIMPAC President

After years of hearing from professionals across investigations and mercantile services who wanted real change and better support, it became clear that there was a need for an association that truly worked for its members, not just in name, but in action.

Having spent many years in this industry, from working in the field to running companies that employ agents, developing technology used by the profession, and teaching through a wide range of training courses, forming AIMPAC was a natural next step. It's a way to bring all of that experience together to support the people doing the work every day.

AIMPAC exists to give back to its members. That means free compliance training, upskill courses, practical resources, and real industry support. We engage with regulators, monitor industry developments, and communicate regularly to make sure our members stay informed and ahead of the curve.

Thank you for being part of AIMPAC. We're here to support you and to help raise the standard of our profession together.

Brad Lyons
President, AIMPAC
